YOU ARE INVITED TO THE GATHERING OPEN HOUSES AT CHRIST CHURCH

OUR MISSION

To create a welcoming and inclusive interfaith prayer community where adults with intellectual and developmental disabilities can explore their spirituality, share in communal worship, and find belonging and joy.

WHO WE SERVE

We particularly craft THE GATHERINGS for those adults with Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities who may live in group homes, attend respite programs, or live at home, and who may not have the opportunity to participate in a traditional prayer service. But ALL are welcome at THE GATHERING! Our time together will include singing, discussions about the topic of the day, prayers for those gathered, celebrations of birthdays and other special events, and time for light refreshments and fellowship. Those who gather will be included in all aspects of our time together; it is meant just for them!

OPEN HOUSE DETAILS-TWO CONVENIENT SESSIONS

WONDER

PRAISE

Dear Friends,

Wonder, Love, and Praise. That sums up the Christian Faith, doesn't it? The Wonder of this most beautiful and wonder-filled life given us by God. The Love of God which compels us to likewise share love. And then, Praise: our collective response to all that God has made known to us, most especially God manifest in Christ Jesus. Praise is our communal Amen to all that is and all that will be.

LOVE is the focus for this month. LOVE: how it is shown to us, how we cultivate it, how we share it with others. After all, why do any of the "churchy" things we do, if it doesn't make a difference in our day to day lives? Love is our response to the love that God lavishes on us each and every day.

There are many ways we exercise LOVE. We do so when we bring a canned good to add to the pantry for the hungry. We do so when we bring a backpack full of brand-new school supplies for young students who do not have the means to start school with everything they need. We do so when we pull together to help homeless people get off the street and back on their feet, as we have been so fortunate to be able to do this summer. We also do so when we LOVE one another, showing kindness to those who are grieving, and praying for our fellow sojourners in faith during difficult illnesses or strained circumstances.

It is all about LOVE when we kick off a new and much-needed ministry, as we are doing this month. The Gathering has been in the works for several months and we are finally ready for an open house and a launch later in the fall. The Gathering is an interfaith ministry that provides a safe, caring place for adults living with disabilities to gather and explore their faith together. You can read about it in the pages of this Crown. It is a wonderful opportunity for us to be a welcoming, loving faith community; you are invited to come, learn, and experience what this is all about.

Mostly, I want each and every person who enters our doors or sits in our pews to answer their own call to LOVE, for LOVE is not just the domain of our church life, but of our everyday life. LOVE is far more than an ooey-gooey feeling. LOVE stretches us in ways that may surprise us. It calls us to see the world through the eyes of the Christ, to remember his words when he said, 'when you do it to the least of one of these, you do it for me.' LOVE requires that we let down our guard, and LOVE requires that we allow the Holy Spirit to work in the most unusual and unexpected of circumstances. LOVE demands all we have and all we are and calls us to be who we are in Christ Jesus.

We will explore all about LOVE this month! In our worship, it will be the focus of our "Let's Talk" sermons that will continue through August. So, start thinking about where you have seen LOVE lately. Who has shown you kindness and generosity, who has taken the time to listen. Pay attention to when you yourself show LOVE – you do, you know! Even if you may not be aware of it. But when you are tuned in, I am sure you are bound to find it everywhere. Let's encourage one another to nothing less than LOVE. After all, it is why we are here.

Peace,
Mother Lisa+

PARISH LIFE

ATTENTION ST. MARY'S CHILDREN'S CHOIR!

I am looking forward to seeing all of you, as we look to the new "season" of making music for the Lord and His Church. If you are new to the choir, welcome! We need more singers, especially young ladies! Please join us for a fun time of learning and singing. Come see me at the piano after Mass any Sunday.

CHRISTIAN ED HAPPENINGS

Just because we do not hold church school classes during the Summer, doesn't mean that no one is thinking about what's next. Because our church school is growing, we are going to be making a move across the hall from the yellow classroom into the space commonly referred to as "the choir room". It is much larger and will give all of us more room to stretch out, add tables and move around more freely. That said, I am seeking volunteers to help with the following projects:

1. Painting the room. This is the only room that was not painted after the Great Coffee Machine Flood, so it really needs to be freshened up. If you like to paint, I'd be glad to hand you a brush or roller.
2. Prior to painting, the baseboards, bookcases, and trim could use a good scrubbing.
3. The floor also needs to be swept and well wet mopped.
4. The beautiful altar and benches in the room need to be gently washed and polished.
5. The needlepoint kneeler and seat cushions could use a good vacuuming and airing.
6. Once we get the physical space ready, there is furniture to move into the room – tables, chairs, some bookcases, supplies, small rug.

There is no start date at this time. That depends on whether or not a work force can be mustered. Right now I'm just lining up volunteers. Most likely it will be later August, early September. We can be flexible on time, so it does not necessarily have to be a Saturday. If you would like to join in the project, please reach out to me. My cell is 732-272-5135. Or email me at susienap@yahoo.com. It's a good way to fellowship while getting a needed job done. There might even be snacks. On another note, if you have a child or children that you would like to have participate in our church school and they are not currently enrolled, please don't hesitate to contact me or the office. The more, the merrier. Jesus loved children and so do we.

Faithfully, Sue Napoletano / Ms. Nap

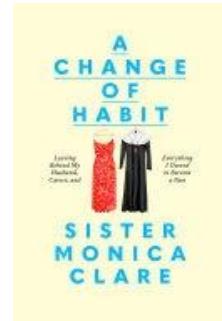

HERITAGE ROSE GARDEN

A variety of annuals added to the Rose Garden in June are now in full bloom. These include golden yellow Lantana, pink Supertunia, and purple Heliotrope. Members of the Shrewsbury Garden Club weed and water this garden throughout the summer. Stop and enjoy this beautiful garden on your way into church.

GETTING A JUMP ON PEAK IN THE WEEK!

It's not quite time to start Peaking, but you know what they say about birds and worms. Peak in the Week will begin again on Wednesday, September 10th - 9:30 in the parish house - but first - heads up about our next book.

September's book is called A Change of Habit and it's written by Sister Monica Clare. She is the sister superior at the Community of St. John Baptist, an Episcopal convent in Mendham, New Jersey. She is also a spiritual counselor who specializes in religious trauma, mental illness, and addiction. Before she became a nun (1912) she was a photo editor in Los Angeles, performed in an acoustic rock duo and an improv comedy troupe.

Didn't know there were Episcopal nuns? Check out A Change of Habit and see what other things you might not know about the Episcopal Church. Sister Monica Clare's early life is recounted in an honest and straight forward way and will inspire readers. All net proceeds from A Change of Habit go toward the ministries of the Community of St. John Baptist

BLUE CLAWS AT SHORETOWN BALLPARK!

This year, we will not be going to the Blue Claws Faith and Family Night as a group, but if you want to see a game, the Faith and Family Night is a great day to attend. Faith and Family Night is August 7th and the game starts at 7:05. Purchase your discounted ticket with the optional $5 food add on for a hot dog, soda and novelty ice cream sandwich. HERE!

A GREAT DAY FOR GRAVEMARKER CLEANING

Several parishioners showed up on Saturday, July 19th, for a lesson (and some practical experience) in how to clean a gravemarker. The event was organized by members of the local DAR, who are working to spruce up the cemetery in preparation for the sesquicentennial next year -- nearly two dozen men who fought in the revolution are buried in our graveyard. Thanks to Walter Dein, George Edwards, Matthew and Tara Dunford, plus Robin Blair and I who showed up to work, as did a half dozen members of the DAR. Gordon and Mimi Brown came by to cheer us on. Those who missed this event will have another opportunity on Saturday, September 13th.

Thanks, Connie

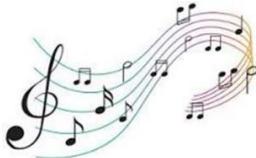

George Edwards works on cleaning a marker with Don Allas, whose wife Karen is the local DAR's marker cleaner in chief.

Matthew and Tara Dunford, pausing for a smile!

BACKPACKS & SCHOOL SUPPLY DONATIONS

Once again, this year we will help children here in Monmouth County begin the school year with needed materials and supplies by participating in our backpack program. There are children who come to school without the needed supplies such as pencils and notebooks, delaying or impeding their fresh start to the new school year. We hope to make a difference for some of these children. Please consider providing a child with some needed supplies such as: Sturdy backpack; pencils, pens, crayons, markers, colored pencils, highlighters, zippered pencil case, spiral notebooks (no binders), homework notebooks, child scissors, glue sticks, marble notebooks, erasers, and other young child specific supplies. The target grade levels are 1st to 5th grades. Please bring your donations to church any day before Sunday, August 31st, when they will be blessed. They will then be delivered to the school guidance counselor during that first week of school. Please help us help some children again this year. Your generosity is appreciated.

LOOKING AT AUGUST

For an Organist and Choirmaster, the Summertime is a time of planning - looking ahead to the hymns, anthems, and organ music for each Sunday up until Advent, and beginning to plan the larger services, such as Christmas Eve and yes, even Holy Week!

Along with that, in July I had the wonderful opportunity to be one of the guest conductors for the 71st Annual Ocean Grove Camp Meeting Association Choir Festival. (Some photos are attached!) This long-time festival welcomes guest conductors each year to lead hundreds of singers who come together to worship God through song. This is the third time I've been given this honor, having conducted works at Ocean Grove by Felix Mendelssohn, Gwyneth Walker, and this year a wonderful piece called "The Ground" by Ola Gjeilo with string orchestra.

There's still a lot going on in August, such as our "Hymn Request Sunday" on August 10th where everyone can choose their favorite hymns to sing during the worship service! If you have a hymn that you love which is not in the Hymnal 1982, please reach out to Fiona (sutherlandfi815@gmail.com) - that way we can have copies ready for everyone! In August, we will also have another "Pop-Up" Summer Choir, singing on August 24th with the rehearsal following the Holy Eucharist the previous week on August 17th.

“IT TAKES A VILLAGE”

Phoenix and Julien Canoy are Philippine students Christ Church supplies a scholarship for college.*

Queeni Caay lives in the Philippines and Christ Church sponsored her college education.*

“A generous person will prosper; whoever refreshes others will be refreshed.”

- Proverbs 11:25

Dearest Christ Church Shrewsbury family,

Now that I'm 26, I tend to think deeply about life more than I ever did when I was younger. Maybe because society and the internet have so much to say about how we should live our lives. Or maybe it's also the pressure of getting compared to people my age who are doing better in life than I am. Society tends to tell us who and what we should have been at a certain age. Some people would say that before mid-20s, you should have finished college, at 25, you should have a stable job, and at 30, you should have your own house and a car, then aim to get married and start a family before your egg cells start to feel weary.

I respect their opinion and I don't let it get into me, but I won't deny that in the quiet hours, when I would space out just sitting on the bench or when I lay in bed mindlessly staring at the ceiling, I also question myself.

"Am I not doing enough?" "Am I running out of time?" "Should I be worried that I am just a few years away from turning 30, and yet I am still lacking by a lot?"

But then I tell myself, no one has life all figured out. Many people are struggling with something, and your current struggle might just be a fraction of theirs. It doesn't mean that you are not allowed to worry or feel sad, because it's good to feel all these emotions while reflecting on yourself. But staying true to your faith and keeping a positive outlook in life does wonders than overthinking things too much. When you meet new people, hear different stories, and observe strangers, you realize that each of us is journeying through life at different paces. Thus, we should enjoy the journey at our own pace. And this is my pace; we are not facing the same circumstances. Just because others are taking big leaps ahead doesn't mean that you are lagging behind everyone else. Doesn't matter if you're 26 or you're 62, for life is not a competition. Our small but "trying to keep up" steps are not lacking, and so our efforts shouldn't be undervalued.

And dearest ones, as I was writing this, I stumbled upon this quote on the internet that says, "Your direction is more important than your speed." God indeed works in mysterious ways because I'm sure there is no internet in Heaven, but he found a way to tell me to calm down. We might sometimes feel troubled, but eventually we will find the peace that we seek. For as long as we believe in Him, everything will be just fine.

With love, always,
Queeni

Here's a picture of me back in May during my Japan trip. Just a girl trying to slow down while looking over the bustling city of Tokyo.

Good day to everyone, especially to Mother Lisa!

I hope this message finds you well and safe. I am truly excited to share with you one of our recent school projects which is my coffee painting. I created this artwork using instant coffee as my medium. It features a serene forest, inspired by my deep love for nature. Although I don't consider myself very artistic but I did my best and I truly hope it makes you proud.

Our classes began on June 16, 2025 and our preliminary examinations are scheduled for July 23 to 25. After the exams, we will be having our acquaintance party. As we prepare for these upcoming events, I am doing everything I can to study hard and perform well in my exams. I want to make sure that all your support and kindness are not in vain.

I wouldn't have made it this far without your continuous help and most of all without God's guidance. Thank you so much for believing in me. I will continue to do my best in everything I do. Once again, thank you very much and I sincerely wish safety, good health, and peace for each and every one of you.

Phoenix Canoy

Hello to the members of Christ Church Shrewsbury and families,

It's me again, Julien. It's been a long time since my last letter. I hope everyone is doing well. As for me, I'm fine and happy. This upcoming last week of the month we will be having our orientation for the school year. Thankfully I am now in my third year of college. Thanks for all your support and prayers. Just this week I enrolled. We are also collecting our grades from different teachers and I'm so satisfied with my grades. I can remember all the efforts I gave and also the struggles I faced. I am not a genius, but I am very happy that I was able to get high grades after working hard. With the help of my family, friends, relatives, Christ Church Shrewsbury family (especially Mother Lisa), and most of all from God who has always been there watching, guiding and protecting me. I know I can make it. This morning when we attended the mass, the priest reminded us to always put God as our first priority. He told us this story of Maria and Martha. It goes like this. Maria and Martha were sisters. One day, God visited their house so Martha was preparing for the foods and other things to serve God. But Maria was just sitting there while listening to God. And so Martha was complaining because Maria didn't help her. But God told Martha why would she bother to do all those things when all He asks from her is to listen. This story reminds us that God is asking us to give Him time, in whatever we do, we need to stop, look and listen to Him. Always prioritize Him. Live our life with Him.

Always thankful,
Julien

THE GATHERING MINISTRY

We are thrilled to announce The Gathering Ministry at Christ Church Shrewsbury! It is a prayer service designed to meet the needs of adults with intellectual and developmental disabilities. This is an incredibly underserved population in churches across America. The committee is working very hard and getting the word out to people who work with this population, have family members in this population, or know individuals with family members in this population. Please distribute the flyer for our Open Houses to everybody who may be interested. If you would like to help with the open house, the committee would be very appreciative! We need to provide some food and drinks for the attendees. We hope you will attend to learn about The Gathering Ministry or speak to one of the committee members about it. Members of The Gathering Ministry committee are: Mother Lisa, Tia LaPiana, Josie Borden, Denzel Donaldson, Susan Sellers, Deacon Magdalena Aders, and Robert Maber.

Sincerely,
Tia LaPiana
