DEAD TO ME: A Diocesan Youth Event

October 25, 2025 from 12 Noon until 4:00pm

at Historic Christ Church

380 Sycamore Avenue, Shrewsbury NJ

Help us Welcome Visitors from all over our Diocese!
Come join the fun!

“Stop and consider the wondrous works of God.” Job 37.14

Dear Friends,

For nearly thirty years I have spent almost every day surrounded by a graveyard. That may not be considered the healthiest way to live one's life, but I have grown rather accustomed to it: I love looking out my office window across not just our graveyard, but the Presbyterian graveyard as well, to find the presence of so many who have gone here before me. So many beautiful stones and markers, containing mere hints of who is buried beneath. So many histories waiting to be discovered. It fills me with wonder.

Stop and consider the wondrous works of God. One does not have to look far to appreciate the wonders that infiltrate our lives. You may not be looking out onto graves, but I imagine you see all kinds of things out your own window. Birds, squirrels, butterflies and bees, each with their own stories. Cars rolling along, walkers and runners, too. Don't you wonder? What is their story? Where are they going? What brings them joy or sorrow?

Stop and consider the wondrous works of God. It is good advice for us all. No matter your age, there are still wonders to be discovered, mostly right under our noses. People in our lives for us to appreciate (both the living and the dead), the wonders of nature, the wonder of each breath we take. As Christians, pondering the wonders of God's grace, the forgiveness we have in Christ Jesus, the joy of knowing our lives have purpose and that each day is a new adventure.

I remember as a child complaining to my mother about how bored I was. For the life of me, now I cannot possibly imagine how that could have been. There is so much to be explored! So much to do! So much to discover! For the wonders of our Lord never cease to amaze any who have eyes to see. And are ready to get out and embrace each new day.

I am a bit sad to say goodbye to the warm, sunny days of summer, but at the same time I am eagerly anticipating all the beauty that autumn in New Jersey brings. The changing of the leaves, the autumn events that pepper our calendar: The Blessing of the Animals, the Graveyard Events scheduled for this spooky month of October, the Panera Night Out, and our first official meeting of our new ministry, The Gathering.

Bored? I don't think so! There's not a chance of that. There is far too much to do and to celebrate. There is far too much that leaves one completely wonder-filled. I hope you take the opportunity to participate in the many activities going on this month. Take time to step outside and take in this wondrous earth. It will recharge your battery and give you a heart that is truly grateful.

Peace,

Mother Lisa+

ALTERNATIVE WORSHIP SERVICE

So far, less than a handful of people have weighed in on whether they would attend a service at an alternative time, and with those four people there was not a consensus of what they would prefer. The Vestry discussed this at our last meeting, and we will keep the question open for a while longer. It may take several weeks before parishioners settle into the 9:00 am service (or not!) and we are not ready to close the door on adding another time. Do email the office if you would like to weigh in on the latter. The two times we were considering are 5:00 pm on Saturday or 11:00 am on Sunday.

LET'S GET SOCIAL!

Christ Church has an Instagram and Facebook account which we update weekly with events and news going on at the church. Please like and follow us.

If you have a program that you want to promote, please contact Kim Roberts-Honecker kimroberts05@gmail.com or (732) 530-7451.

ECW: EPISCOPAL CHURCH WOMEN

The women of Christ Church had their first fall meeting on September 10th, meeting at the No Limits Café in Middletown for lunch. Besides sharing a delicious meal in a very hospitable setting, we discussed some of the things the ECW would like to do this year.

In October, the ECW will provide some light refreshments for the Women's Club of the Villas at Jumping Brook on Thursday, the 23rd. They also decided to lend their support to our newest ministry, The Gathering, by providing light refreshments for them at their monthly worship service for the upcoming months as they get better established. The Christmas Bazaar was also a topic: we are musing about what we might do to contribute to the event, keeping in mind that next year is our nation's 250th birthday.

All these things and more will be part of our discussion at our next meeting at Panera on October 9th at 6:00 pm. We invite all women 16 years of age and older to join us – and feel free to bring along your spouses, children, and whoever else would like to come along for a lovely meal that will also benefit the church.

CALENDAR CASHOUT

What is Calendar Cashout? You pick your favorite dates: anniversaries, birthdays, whatever date is important to you! $5.00 secures each date with your name, and no one else can take it. At the Christmas Bazaar will draw out ONE date from the year. If it is yours – you will receive half of the total take! It's fun to play and easy, too. Look for the Calendar at Coffee Hours, Dead to Me, and other parish events.

CHRISTIAN ED HAPPENINGS

On September 21 another Church School year kicked off. It should prove to be a year of changes. First, because our lower church school is growing in numbers, it was necessary to move our classroom across the hall from the sunny yellow classroom to room across the hall (f/k/the Choir Room). Thanks to an angel, the room has been freshly painted in Waterfall, a delightful blue green color that is both vibrant and calming. We've added larger tables, moved in newer bookcases and brought back the Jesus rug which makes it a comfortable haven for learning. We are continuing with the curriculum Weaving God's Promises. From now through Advent the lessons focus on Old Testament persons chosen by God through whom the lineage of Jesus passes. So, we've already discussed Adam and Eve, Noah, Abraham and Sarah. We've met Jacob and Esau, Isaac and Joseph. Come on down so you can join us! Find out what God promises for you. Lower church school class starts at 9 and runs approximately to 9:40 when the kids literally run over to the Church for Communion. I'm sure you have all heard them outside. They're excited to be joining the congregation!

Katie Wachter, Kristen Downs, Laura Stroebel and Jen Craven are still our teachers. I teach Upper Church School which will meet once we get the schedule in place.

I'd like to offer my appreciation to Mark and Colleen Roth who helped with the transition. Due to their dedicated efforts the piano, altar and all other wooden surfaces have been cleaned and polished to a beautiful glow. In addition, thanks to Tom and Joe Cameron who sweep and do trash removal and to Halina Nibbling who keeps the floors sparkling, the bathrooms fresh and everything else generally tidy and bright. So, even if you don't have children or grandchildren in the program, there is always a place for you to serve or assist in children's ministry. Touch base with me if you have an interest.

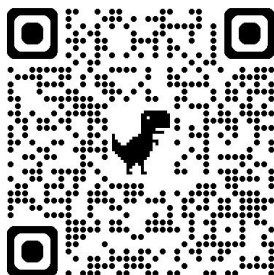

Faithfully, Sue Napoletano Christian Ed Director

LET'S WALK TO FEED HUNGRY CHILDREN

October is here, so it's time for another Crop Walk. This year, it will be on Sunday, October 19th. Mother Lisa and I will be there, along with members of the Presbyterian Church next door. Plus, people from dozens of teams around town.

The walk begins at Red Bank Regional High School, with registration at 1 pm and walking at 2 pm. To sign up, you can or click HERE. The church office also has envelopes for parishioners who would like to solicit donations from neighbors. Our goal is $1,000 this year. Thus far, we have $130. So, more contributions would be very welcome!

The Crop Walk campaign also aids communities worldwide that want to improve their own food supply – a $20 donation will purchase 200 baby fish and $60 a pig.

In addition to donations of money, Crop Walk welcomes bags of rice and beans, jars of peanut butter, and cans of soup.

Donations of any amount will help us meet our goal. For more information, you can contact me – conniegoddard@gmail.com or 773.796.3272. And it would be great to see a lot of Christ Church walkers on Sunday, October 19th.

COLUMBARIUM NICHES AVAILABLE

'In this world nothing can be said to be certain, except death and taxes.' – Benjamin Franklin
An inconvenient truth from old Ben!

It may sound odd but one of the most loving things you can do for your loved ones is make sure that all your affairs are in order. An important piece of that to do list is your final resting place. Christ Church has built a columbarium to house ashes in a dignified fashion on our beautiful property.

If you would like details and information, contact Kim Roberts-Honecker.
kimroberts05@gmail.com or 732 530-7451

FRIENDS HELPING FRIENDS

The Bosco's Friends Helping Friends fundraiser is underway. For $5.00 you can purchase a coupon that will give you percentages off your purchases, in store and on-line on October 22nd. Runs from 8 am – 11 pm. So if you're looking for Bazaar basket items, Christmas, hostess or regular gifts, October 22nd is the date you want to do it and Bosco's is the place. Shortly there will be coupons in the office for purchase. For now, I have them and would be more than happy to divest myself of a few. The full $5.00 donation comes to the Church. Gotta love Bosco's!!! God knows I do.

Faithfully, Sue Napoletano

CHRIST CHURCH WEBSITE

We are excited to announce that we are in the process of updating our website and we would love your contributions! If you have any articles, images, or other content that you would like to see featured on our page, please don't hesitate to reach out to the office. Your input is invaluable to us as we strive to for a vibrant and engaging online presence.

COFFEE HOUR HOSTS NEEDED

Please consider signing up to host, everyone really enjoys the time spent together with fellow parishioners. We are looking for hosts for October 12th and 26th. You can sign up on the bulletin board in the Parish House or send us a message and we'd be happy to add your name to the list.

DEAD TO ME:

DIOCESAN YOUTH EVENT

The Diocese is coming! The Diocese is coming! Bishop Sally was so impressed with our graveyard after her visit here last year, that she asked if we could have a Graveyard Event here for the entire Diocese this October. We had to say YES!

We could use your help – there are many things to do to make this a wonder-filled event! The Dead Actors' Guild is on board and will be out in full fashion in the graveyard. Our Youth Group and their parents will be inside assisting participants in pumpkin painting and creating their own gravestones to take home with them. We hope to have a Scavenger Hunt: if this is your kind of thing, do call the office! It could be great fun. We may add some cleaning of gravestones. We may want to do some decorating in the Parish Hall, and we will be providing platters of sandwiches, chips, that sort of thing, so we could also use some help in the kitchen. Think about how you would like to be a part of it all.

This is a wonderful opportunity for us to give back to the Diocese, and we would love to see as many of you as is possible participating and welcoming our visitors. The Graveyard Event is Saturday, October 25th from noon to 4:00 pm.

DID YOU KNOW THE DAUGHTERS OF THE KING ARE PART OF CHRIST CHURCH?

We are proud of Tia LaPiana, who was inducted into The Order of The Daughters of The King this past August. While competing her six-month discernment program, she worked to fulfill her dream of establishing "The Gathering". All the Daughters support her and wish her well on this endeavor. Tia had the idea to make ribbon book markers for all the Books of Common Prayer and for the Hymnals.

Christ Church has two long time Daughters from 2012, Perky Cameron and Judi Buncher, who is the Treasurer of the Diocese of New Jersey Daughters of the King.

The Order is for women and girls who desire a closer walk with God. It is a sisterhood bonded together by a Rule of Life, living out vows to pray and serve Christ every day as part of our regular lives. Its membership is more than 20,000, mostly in the United States, however it is rapidly grown internationally in over twenty countries across the globe.

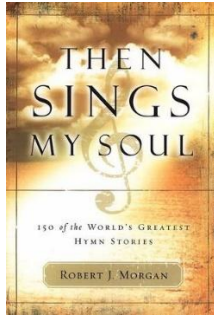

The Order is open to adult women members of the Anglican, Episcopal, Lutheran, and Roman Catholic churches. They meet regularly in small group Chapters usually in their own church or a sister church. Daughters take lifelong vows of prayer and service. We serve the Church in ways agreed upon by the membership in consultation with the clergy. We always wear a special cross which is the emblem of The Order. It is a modified Greek Fleury cross inscribed in Latin, "Magnanimiter Crucem Sustine" which means "With heart, mind and spirit uphold and bear the cross". It is my hope that Christ Church will have their own Chapter in the future. If anyone would like more information regarding this, please contact me with a text message at 7321-861-0249. I have so much joy to tell you about the Order and how it has enriched my life!

Junior Daughters are baptized girls and young women of any Christian denomination aged seven to twenty-one who make a promise or pledge of daily prayer and service. The Junior chapter is led by a Junior Directress who is a Senior Daughter. Their chapter is often made up of girls of different ages, different schools and even different Christian denominations who all make the same promise of prayer and service to our Lord Jesus Christ and wear a Junior Cross.

One upcoming event of the Daughters of the King events is a Quiet Day at St. Peter's Church in Freehold on November 1st. All women are invited. Join us as we Explore the Creative Life of Prayer with The Rev. Canon Susanna Cates. Hope to see you there.

Faithfully, Judi Buncher

PEAK IN THE WEEK

Oh, there's a bite in the air in the morning now. Nippy! Most be Fall, ya think? A calendar check says that it's right that my toes are chilly. October is upon us.

That means that Peak in the Week is starting a new book. And that book is.... Then Sings My Soul by Robert J. Morgan. The cover says it contains stories of 150 of the World's Greatest Hymns. Bet that some of your favorites are in there? I do! Come and be with us as we learn the stories of these hymns and hear why they are our favorites—stories and more stories!

9:30 (most) Wednesdays in the parish hall for an informal Eucharist, the stories unfold at about 10:15. Come be with us. Share our stories. And yours.

THE GATHERING

Please be on the lookout for information on our newest ministry, The Gathering. Want to be a part of it? Contact Tia LaPiana (at tiahegathering@gmail.com) or the church office. We hope you will help spread the word about this wonderful ministry, which serves a historically underserved population.

Please help yourself to the brochures and give them to anyone with a connection to special education. Help spread the word about this fantastic ministry and thank you for your support.

GFS: GIRL FRIENDLY SOCIETY

The Girl Friendly Society will be in the kitchen baking dog biscuits in honor of the Blessing of the Animals on October 5th. Moms and girls are invited to join in the fun!! We hope you'll stop by and take part.

WORKFORCE EDUCATION

Monmouth County's extensive array of programs preparing young people for careers will be the topic at an AAUW meeting scheduled for Monday, October 6th, beginning at 7 pm. Speakers will be Joe Senerchia, director of student services for MCVSD (Monmouth County Vocational School District), and Susan Pagano, who directs the certification programs at Brookdale College. Interest in these programs is growing, and schools in the county have responded with opportunities for certification and career prep in a great variety of fields. Parents of middle school students are invited to attend, as well as the general public and our members. The meeting will be held at the Shrewsbury Historical Society, 419 Sycamore Ave., in Shrewsbury. For further information, see <http://www.aauw-nj-nmcb.org/> or call Connie Goddard at 773.706.3272.

October is the month of Wonder. Get out your camera and start taking some photos that epitomize the Wonder of this world, the Wonder of life, the Wonder of our God. Send them to the church office – along with a snappy caption and then start watching for them! Signs of Wonder will be popping up all over the place....

- Proverbs 11:25

Good day to all of you. To the Christ Church Shrewsbury family and members. I hope you are doing well. Especially to Mother Lisa, may you always remain an inspiration. I am now in the first semester of the 2025-26 school year. In the third year of college. I am very happy because I have already passed half of my college studies. Of course, with your help. I hope you will never tire of supporting us in our studies until we achieve our dream success. In fact, many people really do not believe that we will be able to go to college. So, I am very grateful for the support you give us. I used to be shy every time we were reporting to you. But now I am getting used to it. And little by little I have gained confidence in myself. Also, with the help of my family, who have been helping me with things that I do not understand. They are trying to give me more ideas and explain to me what it means. With so many people helping me, I am more motivated to study hard. And it makes me feel more blessed. So, I thank God for giving me all these people.

Always thankful,
Julien
