Embrace the Aura that is History…

A wedding should last a lifetime…Set the tone for yours by holding your special services in a setting that has lasted for centuries…

Ground yourself in simpler — yet elegant — times of devout commitment….Treat your guests to truly classic building architecture, dating back to Colonial days — with fabulous acoustics…

Enjoy the visual tapestry of our 140-year-old, recently-restored stained glass windows…

Music makes memories that last forever… Embellish your day with the palpable resonance of our 130-year old pipe organ…

Mark the solemnity and joy of the occasion with the pealing of our 220-year old bell…

Christ Church Shrewsbury, an active and vibrant Episcopal church, is now available for private wedding services. Located at the historically-renowned Four Corners in Shrewsbury, NJ, Christ Church was literally at the crossroads of our nation's founding, with congregational services dating back to 1702.

The Facility

Designed by the prominent Colonial-era Philadelphia architect Robert Smith (who designed both Princeton's Nassau Hall, and Philadelphia's Carpenters Hall), the 240-year-old church is on both the National and State Registers of Historic Places.

With its unique vaulted ceiling, and open design, the nave (main room) has excellent acoustics that will enhance any service and accompaniment. A choir loft at the rear of the nave allows musicians to fill the space with their talents.

In the center of the room hangs an authentic 18th century English cut crystal chandelier, identical to one hanging in Philadelphia's Independence Hall. Our recently-restored stained glass windows filter and dapple the incoming light, yielding a soft, warm visual space.

The facility is air conditioned and can comfortably accommodate 250 people. Our Parish Hall next door is included to assist in your preparations. It is also available for rental for a post-service reception, if desired.
