“Jesus is God spelling himself out in a language that we can understand.”

Dear Friends,

As I write this (and you read it) we are still in the magical and mysterious season of Christmas. I don't know who coined the thought above, but I have always loved it. For me, that is the mystery of the Incarnation in a nutshell: Jesus is God spelling himself out in a language that we can understand.

I like to take it a step further. Because we are in Christ, we become the next part of the equation. We are Jesus spelling himself out in a language that the world can understand. By what we do and what we say - we show the face of Christ to others. By the way we treat our neighbors, by the kindness we show to strangers, how we advocate for those with no voice – we introduce others to Jesus. When we stand up for the poor, the lonely, and the disenfranchised, when we give away what we have even when we could use it ourselves – we are Christ present and at work in the world.

In a few days we will begin to celebrate the Season of Epiphany. In many ways, it is a continuation of the Christmas story. Epiphany means manifestation or showing forth. It is the Season in which we slowly see Jesus transforming (manifesting himself, showing forth his Deity) – from his first public appearance at the River Jordan where he is baptized by John to his first miracle at the wedding feast in Cana, to finally his full transfiguration on a mountain before Peter, James, and John.

I have always appreciated the fact that people didn't immediately know who Jesus was or what he was fully about. He only gradually shows himself: perhaps he needed time to come to grips with his identity and mission for himself. I believe the same is true for each one of us. We may have been marked as Christ's own in the waters of our baptism, but that doesn't mean we knew what we were doing. We may have been followers of the Christ for many years, but that does not mean we have arrived. We may work each day to be more like Jesus, but I know I am not there yet. But there is hope! The journey is one of a lifetime, and day by day who we are I Christ Jesus is revealed a bit more. Our own personal “Epiphany” story is manifested and shown forth.

My prayer for each one of us in this new year is that we keep our eyes on the prize. That we look to the One who is God spelled out in a language we can understand. And that we show each other a little grace – forgiving one another (and forgiving ourselves) when we do not measure up to the standard to which we have been called. For we will get there, you know. We will make it up the Mount of Transfiguration one day.

Until that time, let's continue to spell out who the Christ is, in a language the world can understand. Our spelling may be quite simple. It need not be so lofty. It need only speak of a Savior whom we love and love to proclaim.

Peace,
Mother Lisa+

Concerning the Manner of Intinction....

It seems there is still a bit of confusion about receiving the sacramental wine at Holy Eucharist. As I am just coming out of a few days of illness in the midst of the winter cold and flu season, I am particularly mindful of this: we need to follow the Bishop's rules about this.

At the altar rail: you may drink from the common cup (a sanitary wipe will be used in-between each person) or you may leave the host in your hand and the chalice bearer will intinct it for you. You are not allowed to intinct for yourself: that is the quickest way to spread illness among your fellow parishioners. You may also abstain from the wine, but it is respectful and courteous to remain at the rail until the chalice passes in front of you and the chalice bearer utters the proper words (the response always being Amen). We hope to keep our congregation safe and healthy this year.

THANK YOU...

A Thank You to the many who made Christmas such a beautiful experience. From the beauty of the sanctuary to the delightful music program to those who served at altar and as readers and ushers. We have so much for which to be thankful. God is truly good!

ANNUAL PARISH MEETING

The Annual Parish Meeting is Sunday, January 26th, directly following the 10:15 am service. PLEASE NOTE: there is only one service on that day. We will have a potluck lunch in the Parish House following.

We will go over the budget for 2025 and we will elect two members to the Vestry as well as a Senior Warden, Deputies to Convention, as well as alternate deputies. Please let Mother Lisa or one of our Wardens know if you would like to nominate someone to one of these positions.

The Annual Meeting is a wonderful time to recognize all the hard work that has been done at Christ Church as well as to look forward to the new year. We urge all members to be present at this very important meeting.

ANNUAL REPORTS

If there is an Annual Meeting... That means we need your reports! All reports need to be emailed to the church office by January 15. Please have them in Times New Roman 12 point font. If you have any questions, you can call the Church Office or ask one of the Wardens or Mother Lisa. If it happened at Christ Church in 2024, we want to hear about it!

ANNUAL CHURCH ELECTIONS

We have parish positions to fill! At the Annual Parish Meeting, we will be filling positions for the following:

Senior Warden

Two Vestry Members

Three Deputies to Convention/Convocation

Three Alternate Deputies to Convention/Convocation

If you would like to serve, or you know someone who you think would make a good candidate, please speak with Senior Warden Peggy James or with the Rector.

2025 PLEDGE CAMPAIGN:

You Are the Light of the World

Our Pledge Campaign to fund our work and mission for 2025 is quickly coming to an end, but Stewardship is never-ending! As stewards of Christ Church, we are responsible for the management of our resources for the collective benefit of all.

I profiled 8 parishioners (Jen Craven, Madna Aubry, Andrew Brown, Tia LaPiana, Chris Dunford, Edgar John, Judi Buncher & Peggy James) for the Who Am I contest. Whether your answers were right or wrong, thank you for participating. The winner, guessing all 8 is Nancy Stewart. Coming in a close 2nd, guessing 6 is Sarah Schmid and in 3rd with 5 correct answers is Mimi Brown.

There are about a dozen parishioners who are faithful in pledging every year but who have not yet turned in their pledge certificates. You know who you are! Please send us your pledge soon, or if a conversation is needed, please give me a call.

If you are new to the parish or have not pledged in the past, the new year is a great time to start. We are looking forward to many good things this year and need each person's support and participation. If you have any questions or concerns you can always talk with me or Mother Lisa.

Our progress as of 12/26:

New to Pledge: 2

Pledge - Same as Last Year: 7

Pledge - Increased from Last Year: 22

Pledge - Decreased from Last Year: 7

Total Pledges Received: 38 totaling $109,820

PLEASE NOTE: Last year, by the time of the Annual Parish Meeting on January 28, we had received 50 pledges for a total of $158,462. Your generosity last year enabled us to make strides in our finances, but we have far to go this year. Please help us to be on target for our Annual Parish Meeting on January 26th.

Peggy James, Stewardship

PARISH LIFE

GIRL'S FRIENDLY SOCIETY

Our next Zoom Meeting is scheduled for Monday, January 6th at 7:00 pm. A link will go out by the end of this week for you. We hope you can join us!

Contact Stacy Reagan if you have any questions about any of these events.

EYC: EPISCOPAL YOUTH COMMUNITY

Youth Group Special Outing

We are going to our Cathedral! On Saturday January 18th, the Diocese is holding a Martin Luther King Jr. service at 3:00 pm. This means we will be able to accomplish two of our goals for this year at once: participate in MLK Day and visit the Cathedral.

We will carpool from the church, leaving at 1:45. A reception will follow. All youth and their families are invited to join us. As well as anyone else in the parish!

CHURCH SCHOOL HAPPENINGS

The church school continues to rock and roll downstairs on Sunday mornings. Given the new church service time, church school still starts a bit before that so everyone can get settled in. It no longer starts at 9:50, more like 10. We dive right in with our lessons and activities which often take some time so we try to maximize the time we have. We've been trying to head over to church a bit earlier so the kids can be in Church to experience the full Eucharist service. Still working on that. Stay tuned for the Epiphany Pageant!

Faithfully, Sue Napoletano

IT'S TIME! THE EPIPHANY IS CLOSE!

Epiphany is upon us! So is the annual Epiphany Pageant at Christ Church, Shrewsbury on Sunday January 5th during the 10:15 am service. Following the service there will be a party in the parish house and we will be serving King Cakes.

There is still time to be part of the fun and festivities. There will be a dress rehearsal on Saturday, January 4th at 11:00 am in the church. We still have room for budding angels, sheep, shepherds and Sage pages.

PEAK IN THE WEEK 2025

The wonderful hectic pace of modern Decembers is tiring and crazymaking so the Peak book for December was a reach for peaceful moments with Robert Macfarlane as he walks and contemplates the joys of nature. I found that I was still looking forward to some more of the same and so I opted to continue a softer, more relaxed way of living.

Braiding Sweetgrass is our book for January 2025. We'll start the new year with a calm and intentional look at the ways of "Indigenous Wisdom, Scientific Knowledge, and the Teachings of Plants" under the tutelage of Robin Wall Kimmerer in Braiding Sweetgrass.

Take the first breaths of 2025 in peace and calmness—the rest of the year promises to be anything but!

We invite you to join us at Peak in the Week in the Parish House on Wednesdays at 9:30, for Eucharist, 10:15 for the book discussion.

SAINT GREGORY'S CHOIR

Come January 1st, Fiona Sutherland is officially with us for one month. There was not much time for us to get to know her and she us, but thanks to our enthusiastic choir members, we all had an enjoyable first Advent and Christmas together. A special thanks to our Christmas Eve choristers: Josie Borden, Barbara Carroll, Colin Mitchell, Sue Napoletano, Colleen Roth, Mark Roth, Drew Sutherland, and Mother Lisa.

Are you feeling the urge to sing? Come join us! Our first practice of the new year is Thursday, January 9th at 10:00 am; we will meet in the Library. The first two anthems we'll work on are Malcolm Archer's setting of the Epiphany text "Brightest and Best" and John Harper's energetic setting of "Psalm 150." If you are unable to make Thursday practices, do speak with Fiona. She is eager to accommodate you if possible.

SAINT MARY'S CHOIR

St. Mary's Choir resumes rehearsals - We will meet after Mass on January 12th. If you have been away from the Choir for a while, please return - we need you. My thanks to our singers for Advent Christmas. So - vestments are ready (thank you Sue Nap!) We'll look for you on January 12th!

Br. Richard

MEN'S GROUP

On behalf of the Global Outreach Ministry to Liberia and our affiliated parishes of St. James and St. Michael's, I wish to thank you and your church communities, and WHS students for donating medical supplies, water, energy drinks, etc. and providing human labor to help us load the 40' relief container to Liberia. We are sincerely grateful for your support and provision of material and financial support. We are also grateful for the donated rice, beans and oil.

The shipment of the container should depart the Port of New York on 12/20 and the expected arrival date at the Freeport of Monrovia, Liberia is between Jan. 26-28, 2025. I will keep you all posted.

COVENANT HOUSE

From our Covenant House Friends

Hi Mother Lisa,

As the holiday season fills the air with joy, I wanted to take a moment to personally thank you and everyone at Christ Church for the incredible role you've played in making this time of year so special for the youth of Covenant House. Your kindness and generosity have brought so much light and hope to so many, and we are truly grateful for everything you've done.

Because of your support, so many young hearts are filled with the warmth of the season, and we couldn't have done it without you. You've helped create memories that will last a lifetime, bringing smiles to faces and filling homes with joy.

I wanted to share with you a picture of the tree decorating one of the Asbury homes, it's surrounded by gifts that our friends made possible. It's a beautiful reminder of the difference you've made in the lives of so many.

Wishing you and your loved ones a holiday season filled with peace, love, and happiness. Thank you again for helping make the holidays so bright for our community.

Merry Christmas,
Sue Monteiro

50/50 RAFFLE 2024

The 50/50 Raffle was drawn on December 7th at the conclusion of the annual Christmas Bazaar. The winner was Ed Ahearn who was the lucky recipient of $1,347.50. Thank you to everyone for purchasing and selling the raffle tickets this year!

COFFEE HOUR HOSTS NEEDED

We are in need of Coffee Hour Hosts! Please consider volunteering your time. The sign-up sheet is located on the bulletin board in the parish house. Please check your calendars and either call the office and let us know your availability or sign up when you come to Church on Sunday.

ELFIN MAGIC DESCENDS UPON CHRIST CHURCH

Sorry folks, no Keebler cookies. Just a cheery, festive Parish Hall to delight everyone for the Bazaar and through our Christmas Season. Elves gathered after the service on December 1 to arrange tables, hang garland, and decorate the vestibule, bookcases and the windows outside the library. I'd like to thank all those Elves who schlepped down from the North Pole to make our season bright! Oh how merry it all is! This year's elves include Walter Dein, Bramley and Marie Maber, Robert Maber, Mark and Colleen Roth, Nancy and Bob Stewart, Tara Dunford, Olivia and family, Lisa, George and Lillian Marino, Elaine Feyereisen, George Edwards, Judi Buncher, Gordon and Mimi Brown, Robin Solbach, Cassandra and Abby Murphy, Jen Craven and Abe, Kodi and Dexter, and Denzel Donaldson. If I inadvertently left you off the list, I sincerely apologize. It was such a busy time with so much going on!!! I really should have made a better list and checked it twice.

Festively yours, Sue Napoletano

BASKETS & BAKED GOODS HOLIDAY BAZAAR

The 2024 Baskets & Baked Goods Bazaar, held on Saturday December 7 was a success for our church! Cold but sunny weather helped us with the foot traffic – and the 32 beautiful baskets on display, delicious baked goods and Trinkets & Treasures offerings kept our visitors there. Total revenue for this year's event amounted to $3862.40.

This year we did tiered ticket pricing for the baskets (based on the overall basket value) to help maximize our revenue. Tier One consisted of 15 baskets worth up to $75 in value; a sheet of 25 tickets cost $35 for this tier. Tier Two had 17 baskets worth $80 or more with a sheet of 25 tickets costing $45.

We also had 4 grand prizes – each worth $200 or more – two different Christmas trees from the National Tree Company; a bike and an outdoor lounge with cooler/backpack/stool. These items were a gold ticket raffle item – with each ticket costing $5 and no minimum purchase required.

Lastly, we were once again fortunate to receive an autographed football from the Giants organization which we put on silent auction for the day of the Bazaar only.

Thanks to all of you who helped by donating baskets, baked goods and your time to this – our single biggest fundraiser of the year. It simply cannot happen without each and every one of you. Thanks to Elaine Feyereisen and Nancy Stewart for managing and staffing the Bake Shop; Colleen & Mark Roth & Cassandra and Abby for running the coffee service out of the kitchen; Lynn, Sue & Sarah for handling the greeting/ticket selling all day and Josie for selling out the 50/50 tickets!

Extra special thanks to Sue Nap – who's vision and love of finding the perfect [insert whatever item it is] to bring it all together is awe-inspiring and helps to turn the Parish House into a Winter Wonderland. To Walter, who makes so much of the physical stuff happen and puts up with 19 women telling him what to do, all with a smile. And last, but certainly not least, Judi Buncher, whose ability to stage ANY basket is what makes our event look so amazing!

BLESSING OF THE STOCKINGS

On Saturday, December 14th Christ Church held its very special event The Blessing of the Stockings.

The children helped decorate the Christmas tree, decorated cookies to bring home and had their Christmas stockings blessed.

WREATHS ACROSS AMERICA

Christ Church participated in Wreaths Across America for the first time this year. Wreaths were placed on all the graves of veterans in our graveyard. Scouts from the Craven Family Troop gave us wonderful assistance.

CHRISTMAS TOY DRIVE

The annual toy drive was abundantly successful this year. Children surely had smiles on their faces on Christmas morning due to the generosity of the parishioners of Christ Church. Toys were brought to St. Mark's in Kearsburg for distribution to families who are unable to provide for children at this time of year. St. Mark's Episcopal Church in Kearsburg provides a food pantry as well as meals for residents who are experiencing need.

MEN'S GROUP

On December 12th, the Men's Breakfast Group joined men from St. James, Eatontown and St. Michael the Archangel, Wall to help prepare a shipment of church supplies and relief goods to benefit the Episcopal Church of Liberia, and Liberian people in need.

IT TAKES A VILLAGE”

Queenie Caay lives in the Philippines and Christ Church sponsored her college education.*

“A generous person will prosper; whoever refreshes others will be refreshed” - Proverbs 11:25

Dearest Christ Church Shrewsbury family,

I listen to "O Come, All Ye Faithful" while writing you this letter. It is one of my favorite Christmas songs. When everyone at church sings it, it gives me the happy kind of goosebumps. Christmas season really boosts my happy hormones. It's hard to explain, but I am sure you know the feeling—that chilly air that tickles you but makes your heart feel warm, the twinkling lights outside that make you want to slow down, and that different kind of smile on people's faces! That's what the Christmas spirit does to all of us.

I know that by the time you receive this, the holiday season is already over, but I still want to send my warmest wishes to all of you. It is my tradition. Every year since I started writing for the Crown, you are always on my mind when I make holiday greeting cards for my friends and family. I can only create soft copies and send them virtually for you, but I hope you know that it is equally filled with sincere and warm thoughts. 2025 is here; oh, how time flies! This year, I wish that you remain kind to yourself because God lives within us.

Fresh off the success of our December 2024 outing to help prepare a relief shipment of church supplies and more to benefit the Episcopal Church of Liberia, the Men's Breakfast Group will kick off the New Year with a breakfast gathering from 8:30 to 10:00 A.M. on January 12, 2025, at the Americana Diner, 1160 Route 35, Shrewsbury, New Jersey 07702. All men in the Parish are invited to come and get in the game to make a difference at Christ Church, in the community, at work, and at home. Don't be left on the sidelines. Please call the Parish Office at (732) 741-2220 and register today!
